Mi CASA Su CASA The Opening of Casa at Rednaxela, Hong Kong

Hong Kong, 10 June 2011 – Located on the Ground Floor of ACTS Rednaxela, Hong Kong, Casa offers a unique setting for private events, such as catered dinners and meetings, in a contemporary yet more formal environment. Echoing Goldig Investment and Edge Design Institute’s quintessential brief of the project in redefining “luxury and comfort,” Casa exhibits vision of a formal dining room within a private residence, with flames flickering atop classical candelabras, eclectic tableware and much-loved volumes lining the timber bookcases. The sixteen chairs bring a different piece of history to the table, each ranging from the 19th century to today.

Catered dinners can include fantastic menus from hearty Italian and seasonal Mediterranean to grand offerings of fresh seafood from the local markets, and dining at Casa is an experience not unlike a dinner party held at the most gorgeous homes. Our Maitre'D is a gracious host who will attend to the host’s every needs, while a 5 star restaurant executive chef is in the kitchen as the private dinner cook. Seasonally fresh produce and seafood are used to reflect the variety of ingredients best at the time of the year. Luxurious braises of meats, whole roasted fish, daily fresh ceviches and exciting twist of the best classics are all put together in a sensible manner, with distinctive set menus that can be created to take all guests on a gastronomic journey of oohs and wows.

Equipped with 50” LCD television, 110” overhead projector, Blu-ray player, Sony PS3 and Nintendo Wii videogame equipment, Polycom teleconference equipment, and an adjustable table seating up to 16 people, Casa is also ideal for hosting meetings, cocktail events or even private video-game sessions.

Come to Casa to meet, eat, drink, play and be taken care of. As the Spaniards say, “Mi CASA Su CASA!” Make yourself at Home!
